

How Well Do You Know
The Suffolk Coast?

The lost city at Dunwich

At its medieval peak, Dunwich was one of
England's largest ports.
Before the North Sea
claimed it, how many churches were recorded in the city?

- A: 4
- B: 18
- C: 8
- D: 12

At its medieval peak,
Dunwich was one of
England's largest ports.
Before the North Sea
claimed it, how many
churches were recorded in the city?

A: 4

B: 18

C: 8

D: 12

Lowestoft

Image – Mary Doggett@ETT Photography

What is the name of the circular marker at Ness Point that points to other European cities?

-
- A) The East Star
 - B) The Sunrise Disc
 - C) The Euroscope
 - D) The Meridian Plate

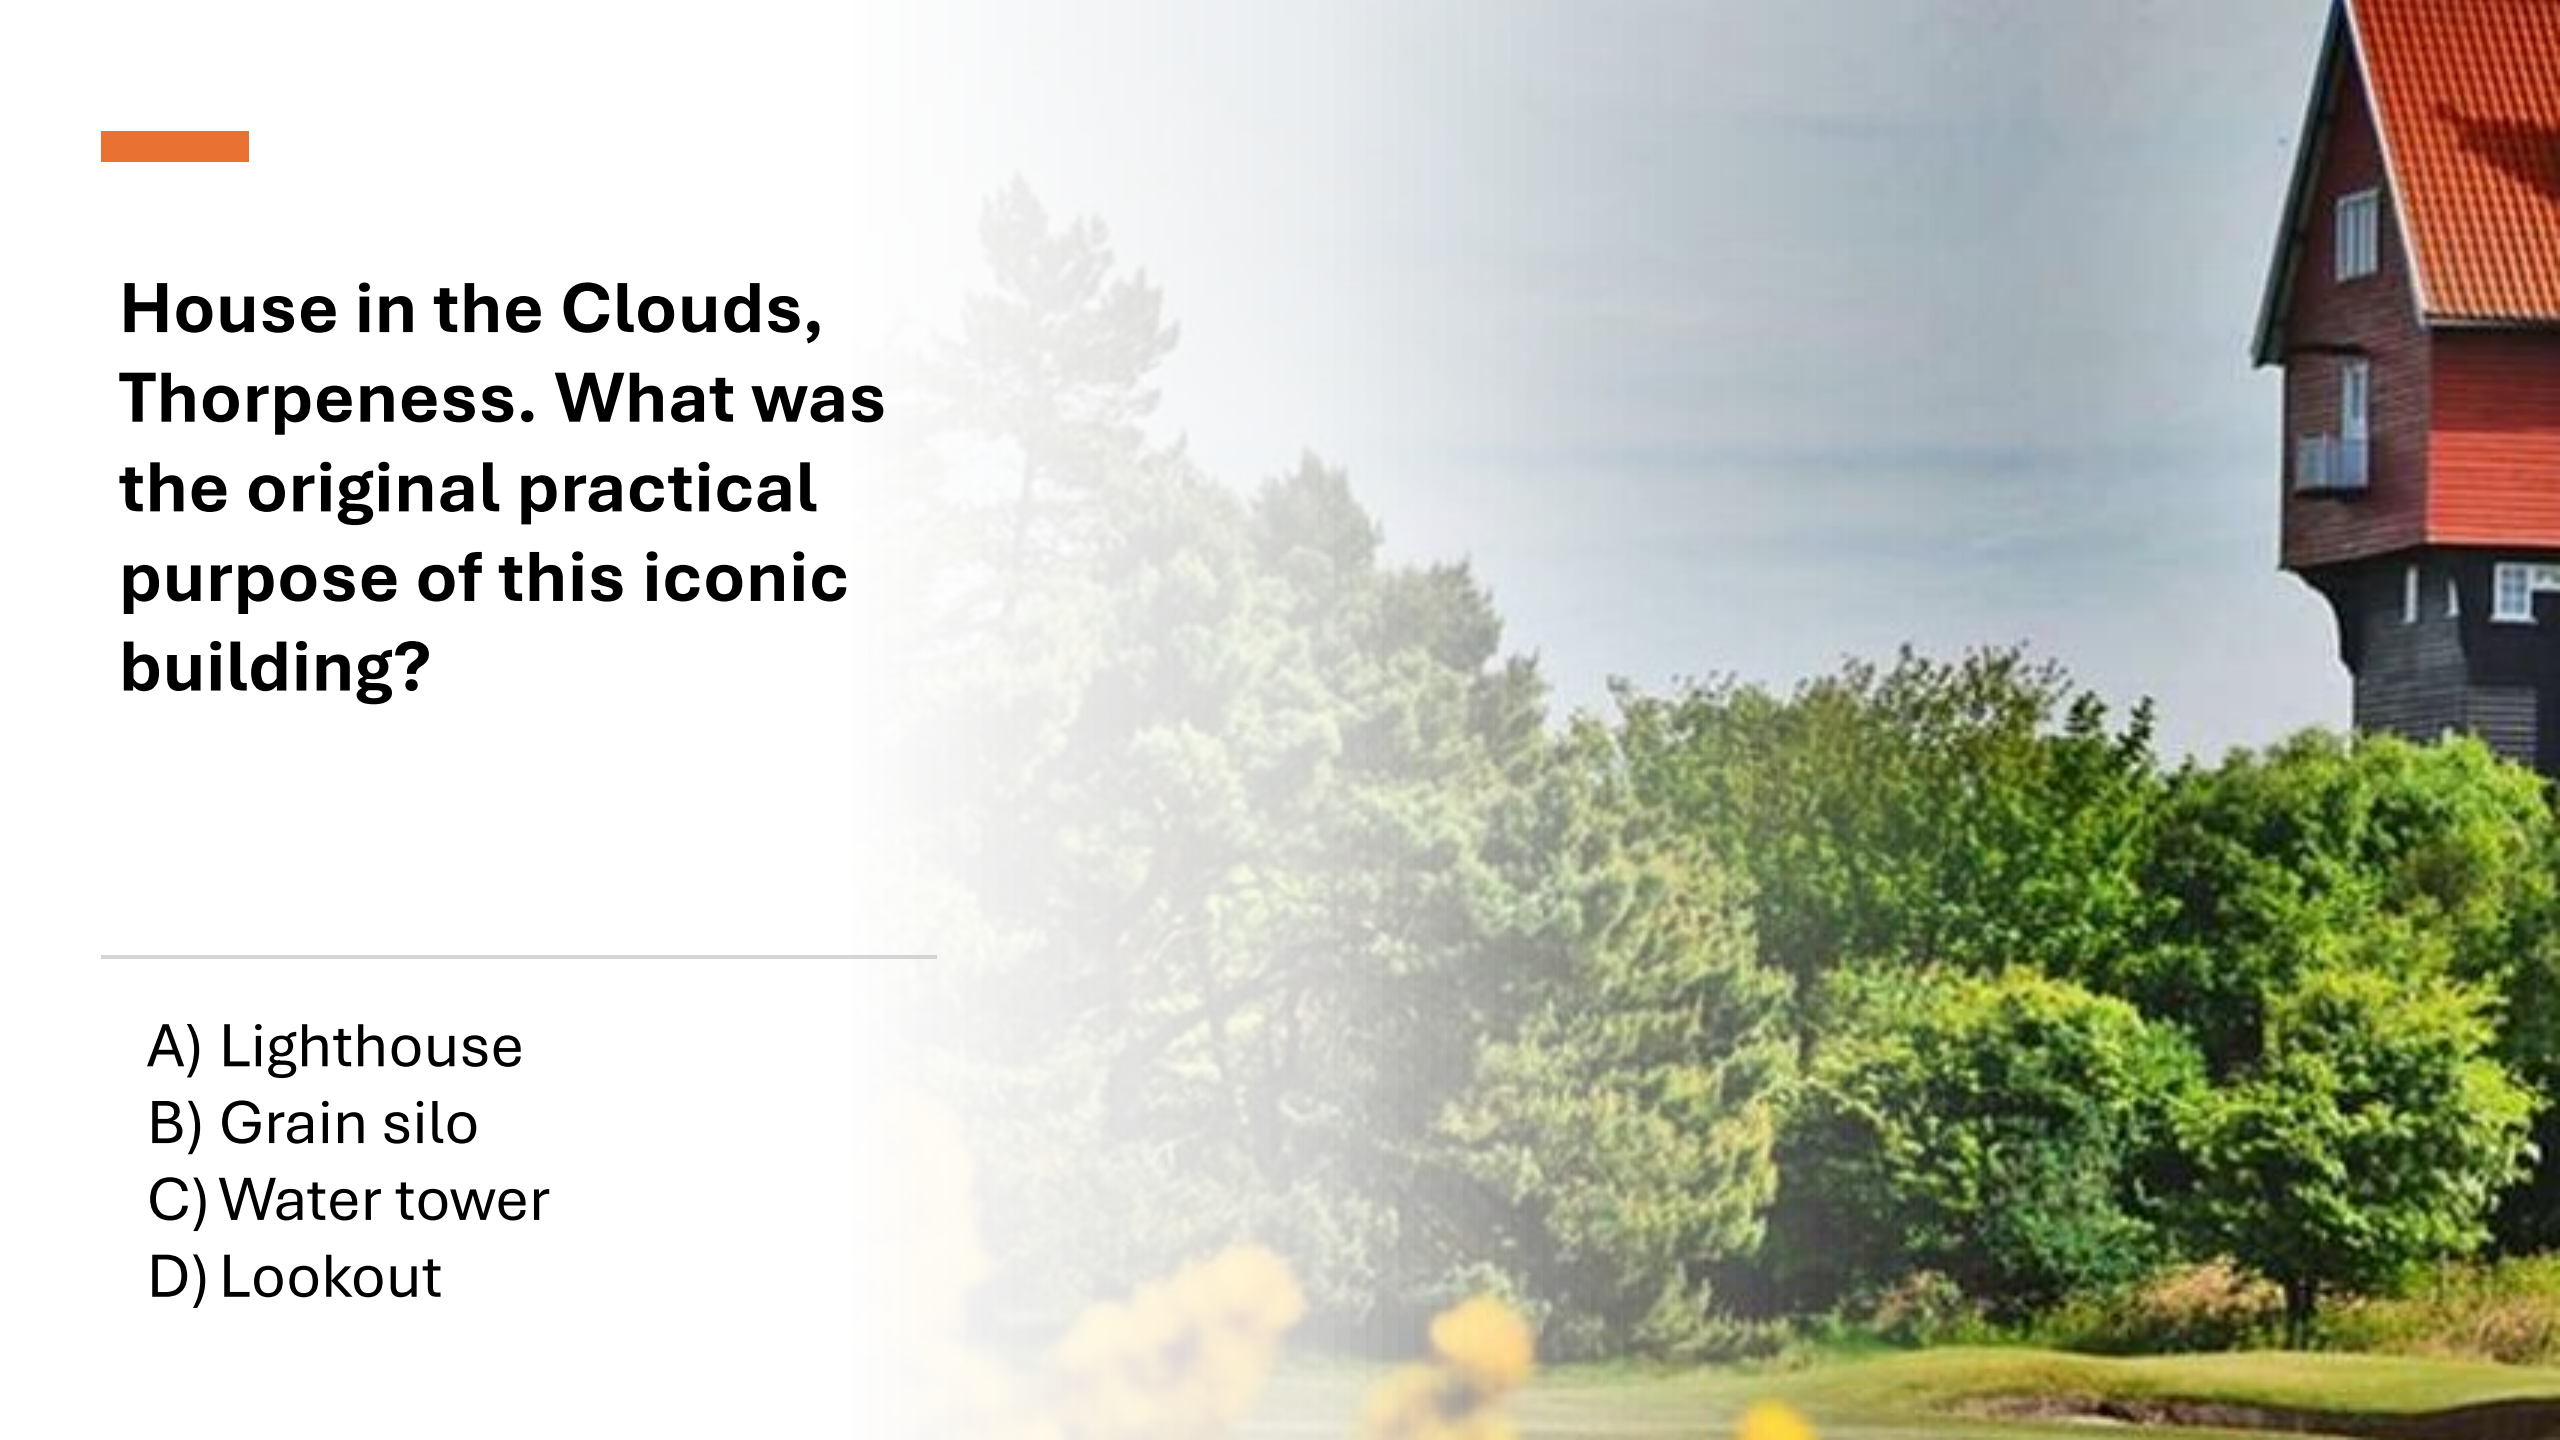

What is the name of the circular marker at Ness Point that points to other European cities?

- A) The East Star
- B) The Sunrise Disc
- C) The Euroscope
- D) The Meridian Plate

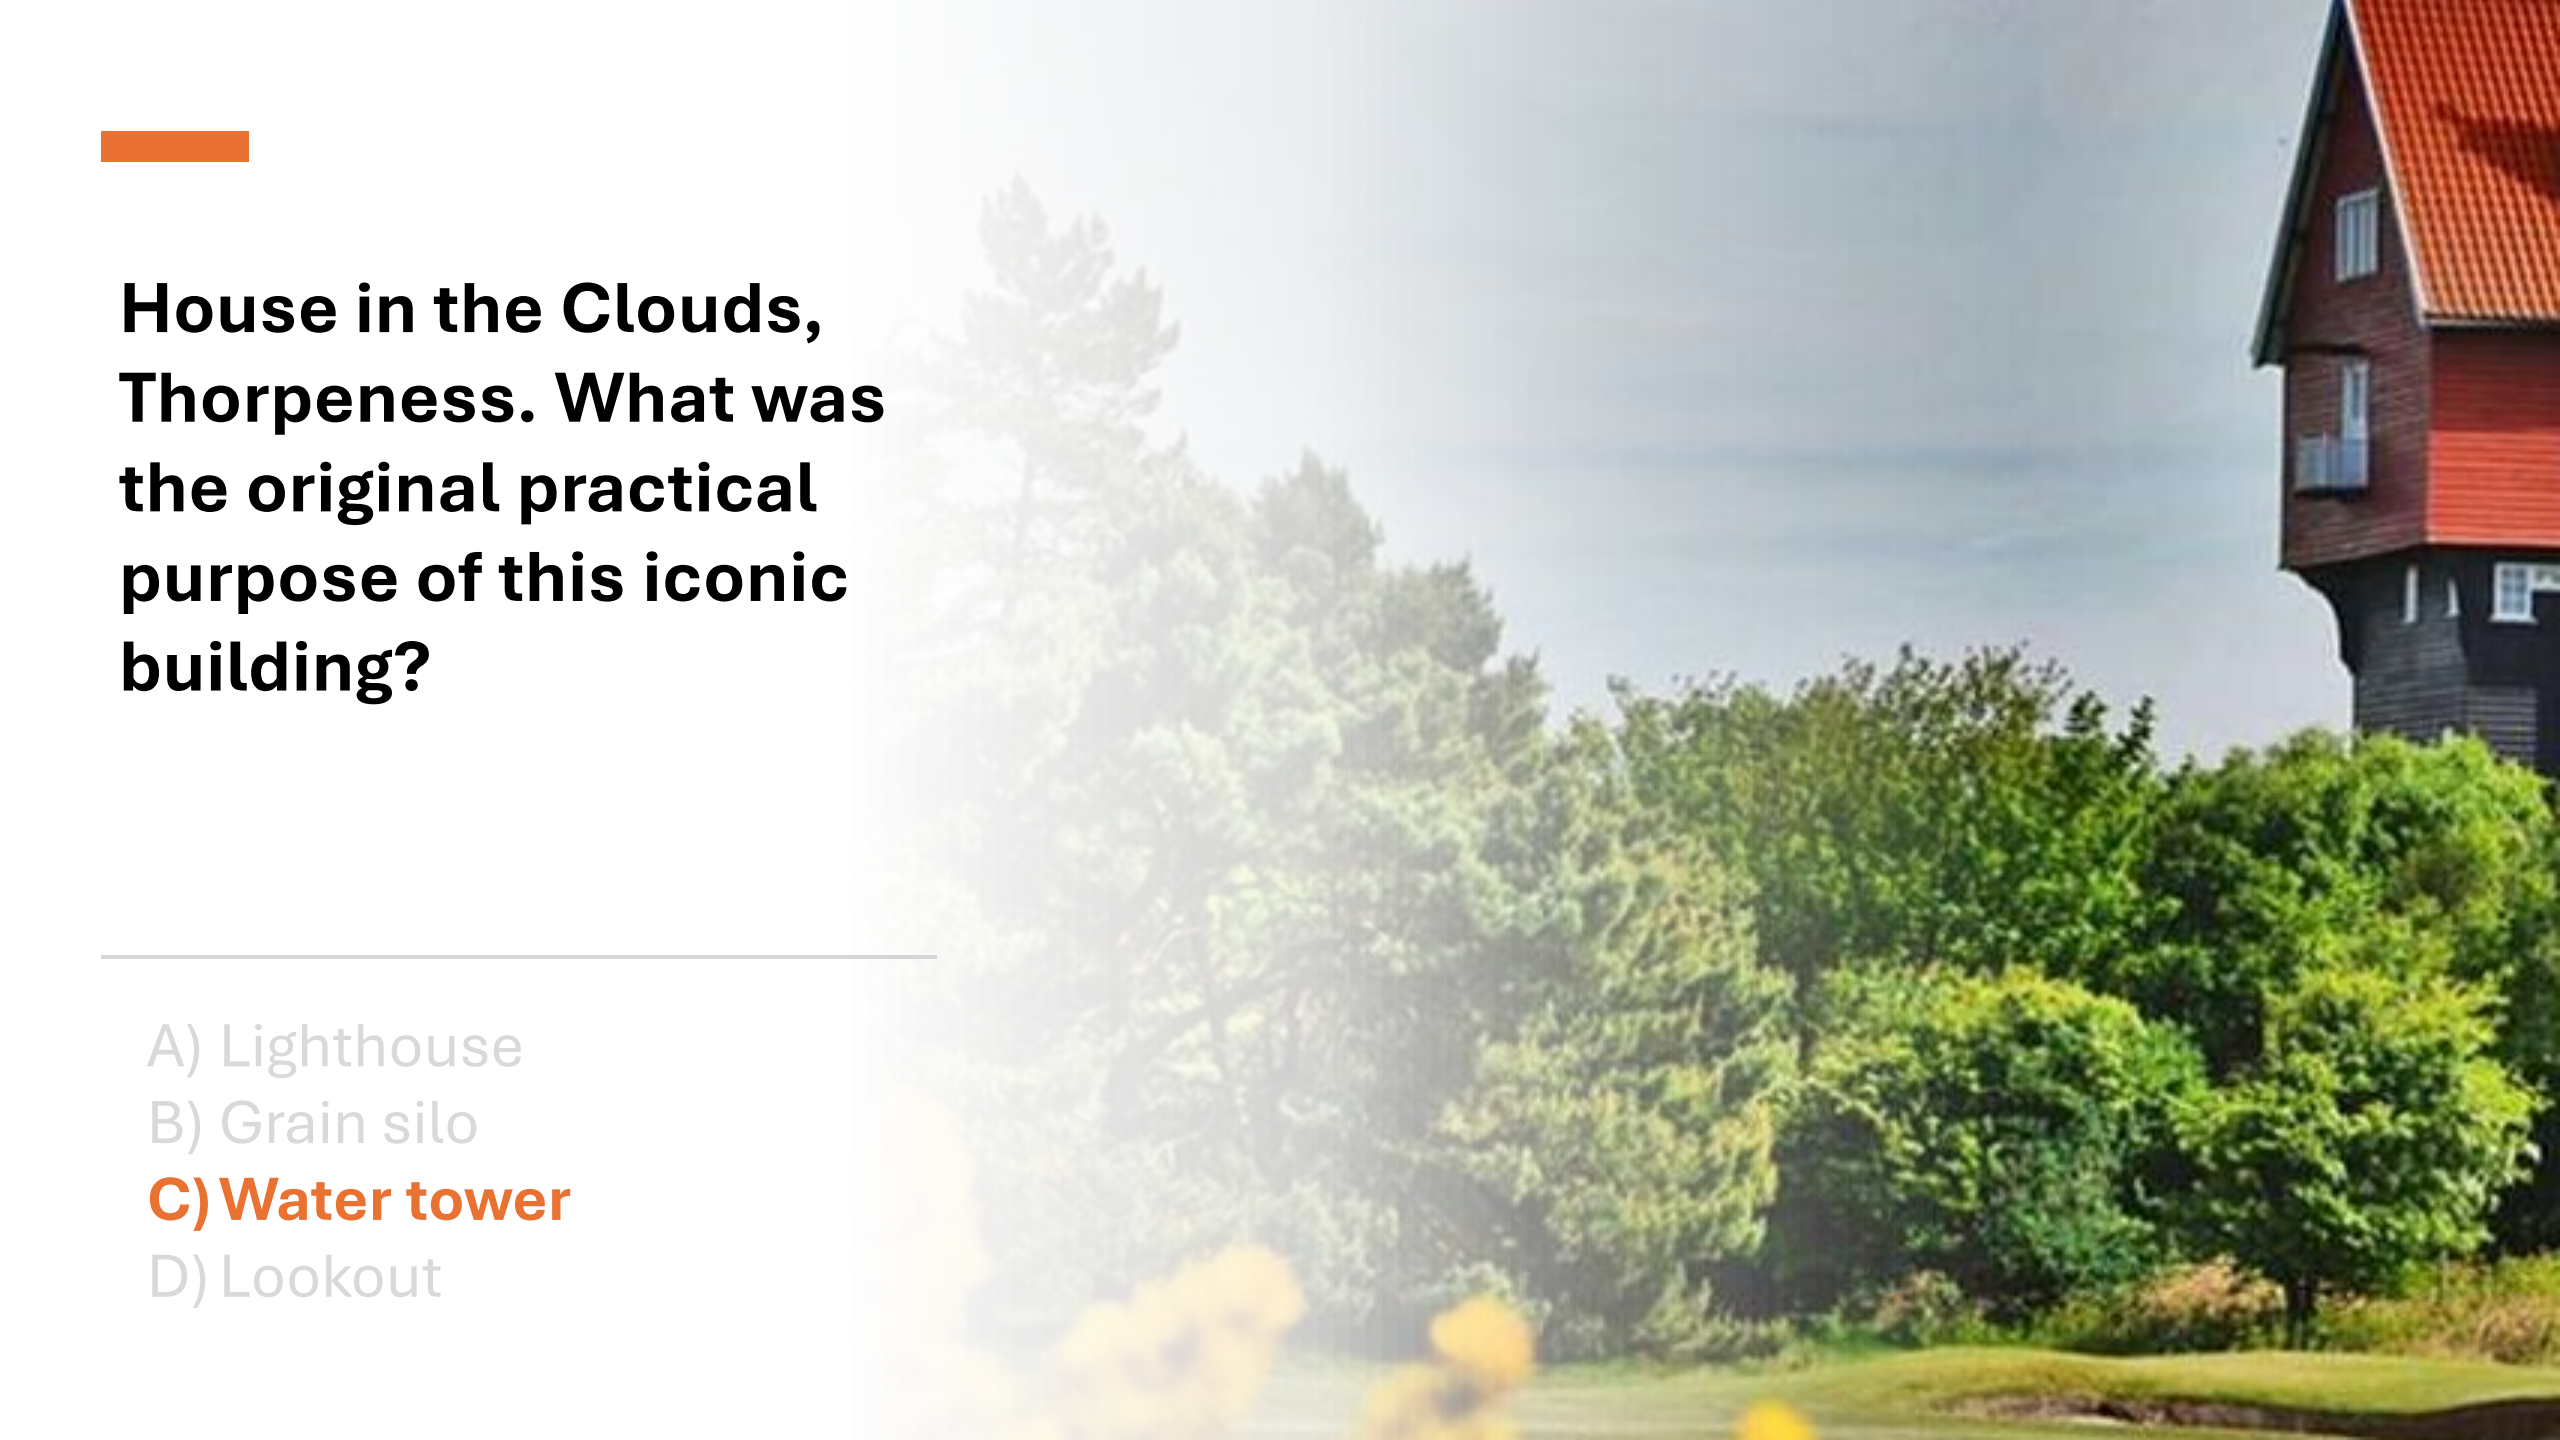

House in the Clouds - Thorpeness

House in the Clouds, Thorpeness. What was the original practical purpose of this iconic building?

-
- A) Lighthouse
 - B) Grain silo
 - C) Water tower
 - D) Lookout

House in the Clouds, Thorpeness. What was
the original practical
purpose of this iconic building?

-
- A) Lighthouse
 - B) Grain silo
 - C) Water tower
 - D) Lookout

Orford Ness

What is the nickname for the Cold War structures still standing at Orford Ness?

-
- A) Mushrooms
 - B) Sentinels
 - C) The Pagodas
 - D) Honeycombs

What is the nickname for the Cold War structures still standing at Orford Ness?

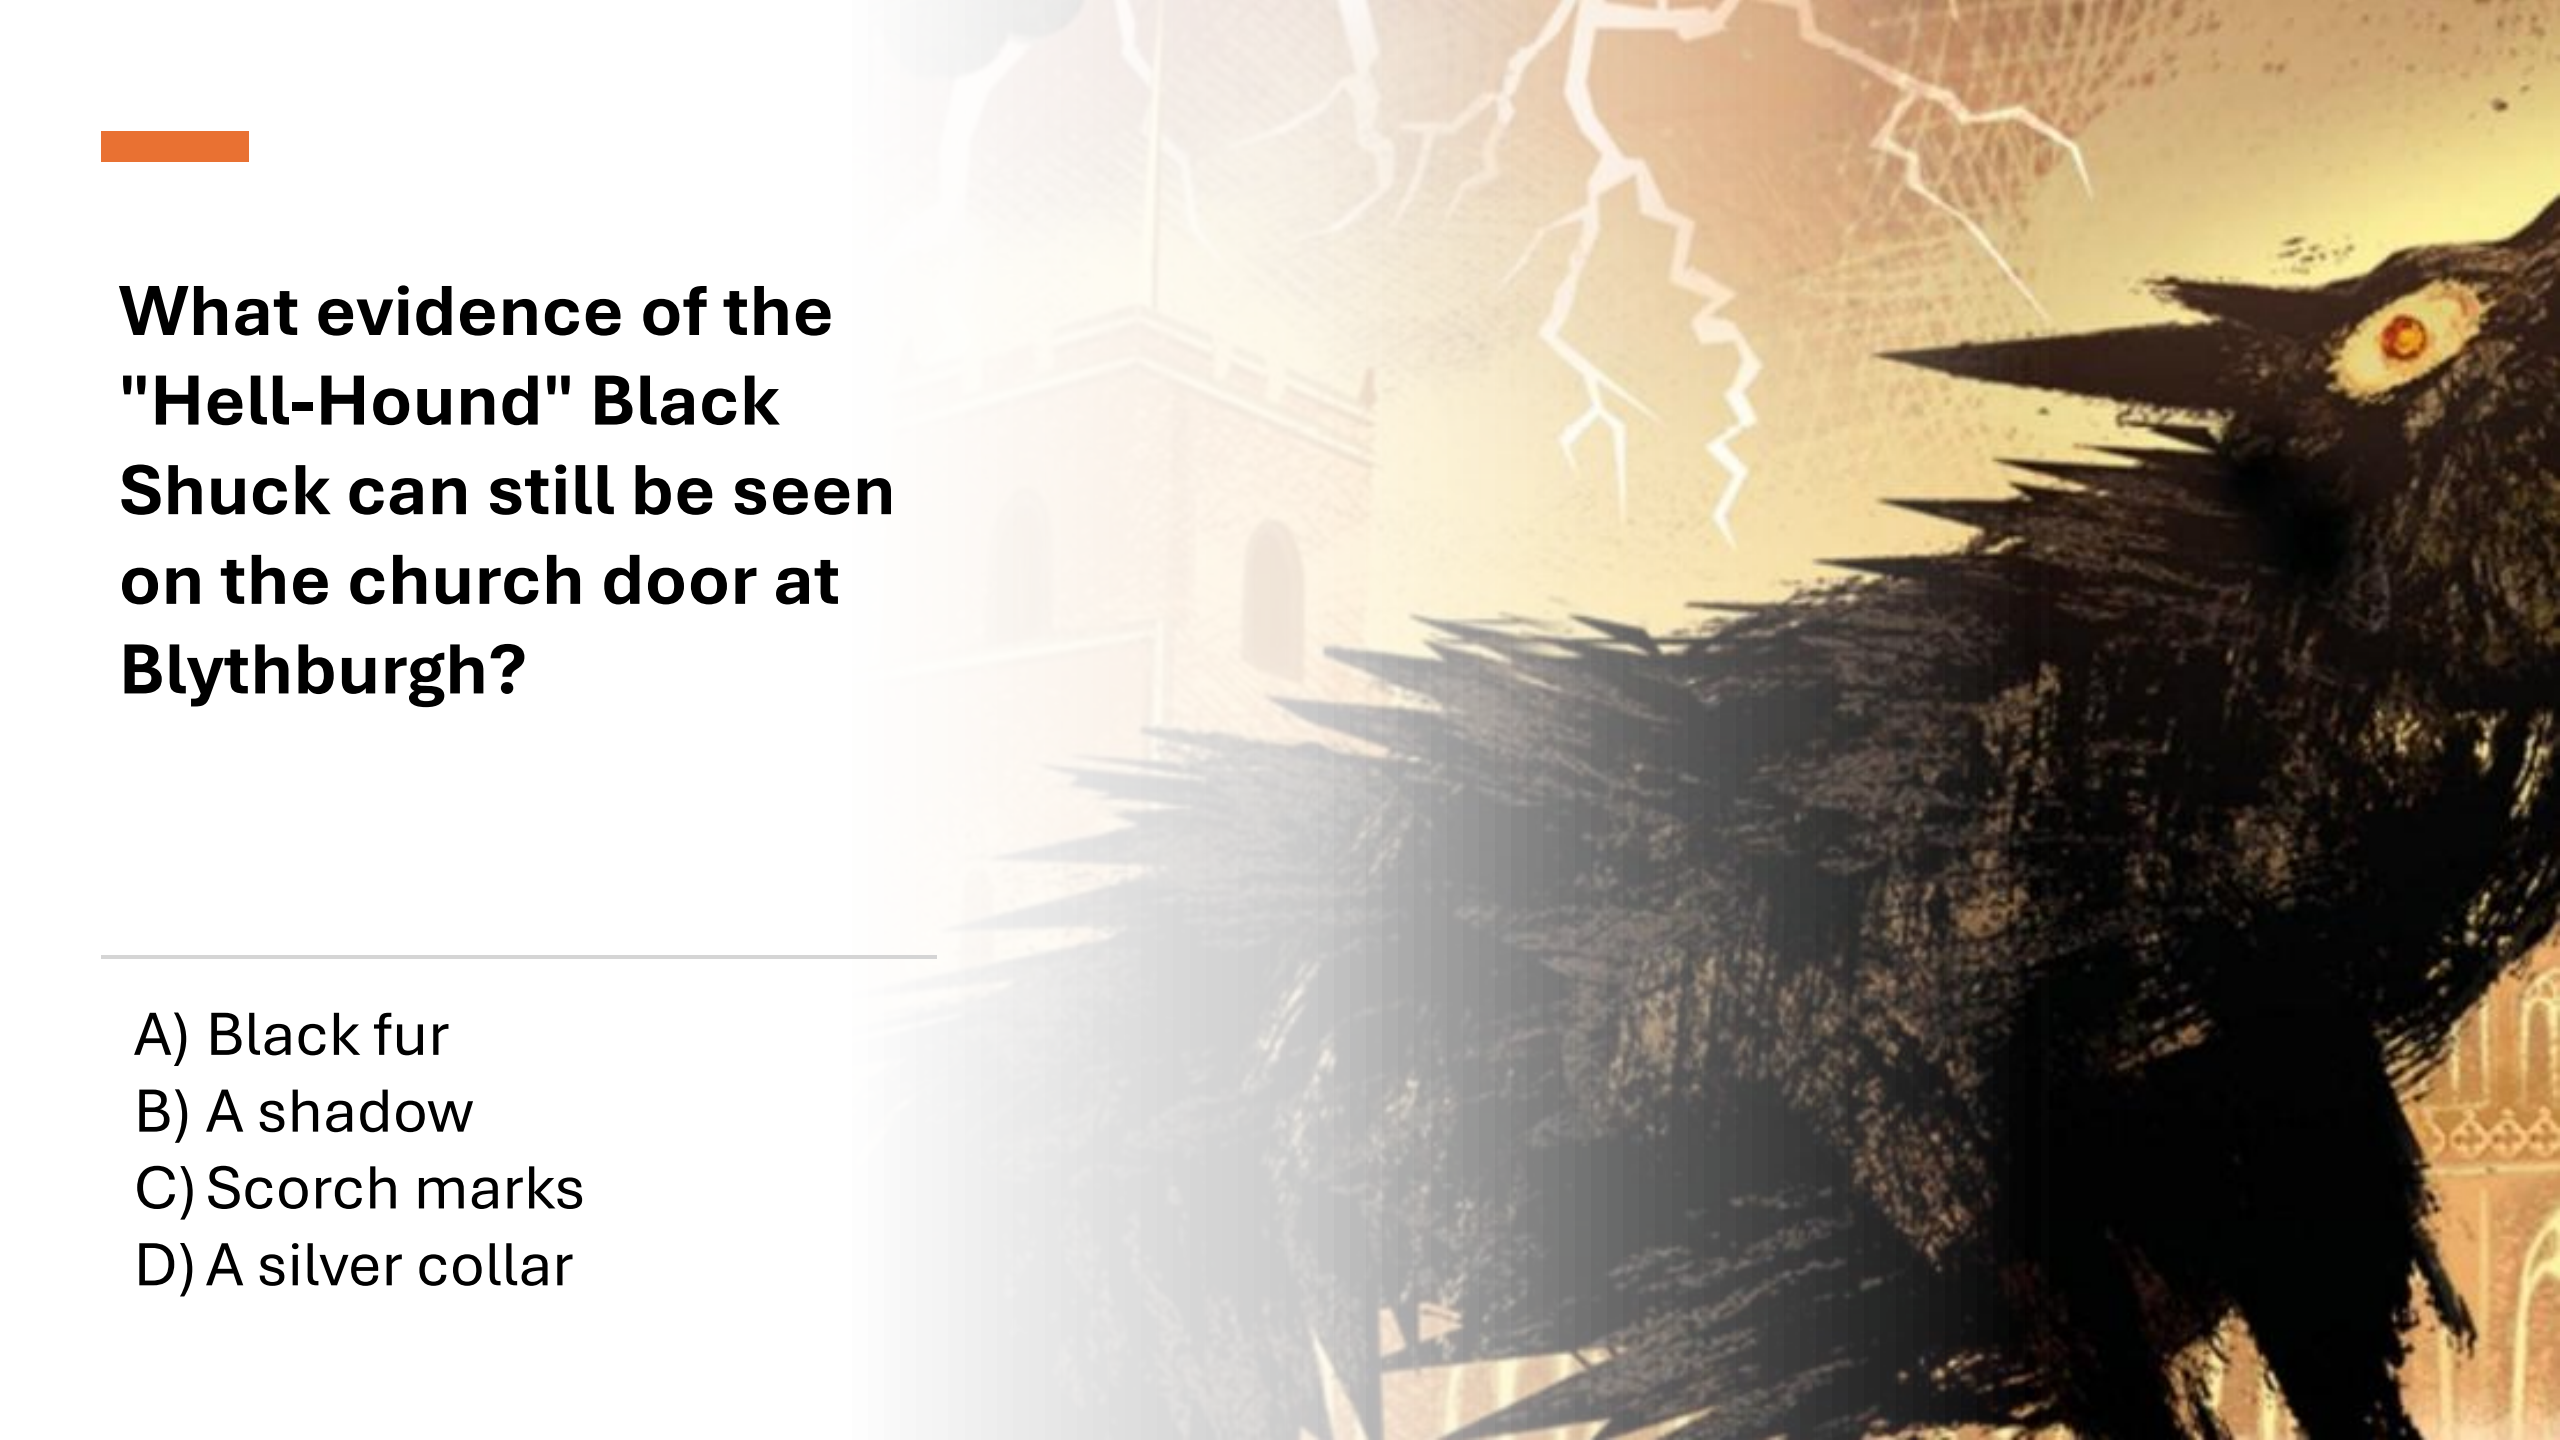

- A) Mushrooms
- B) Sentinels
- C) The Pagodas
- D) Honeycombs

Black Shuck

What evidence of the "Hell-Hound" Black
Shuck can still be seen on the church door at Blythburgh?

-
- A) Black fur
 - B) A shadow
 - C) Scorch marks
 - D) A silver collar

What evidence of the "Hell-Hound" Black Shuck can still be seen on the church door at Blythburgh?

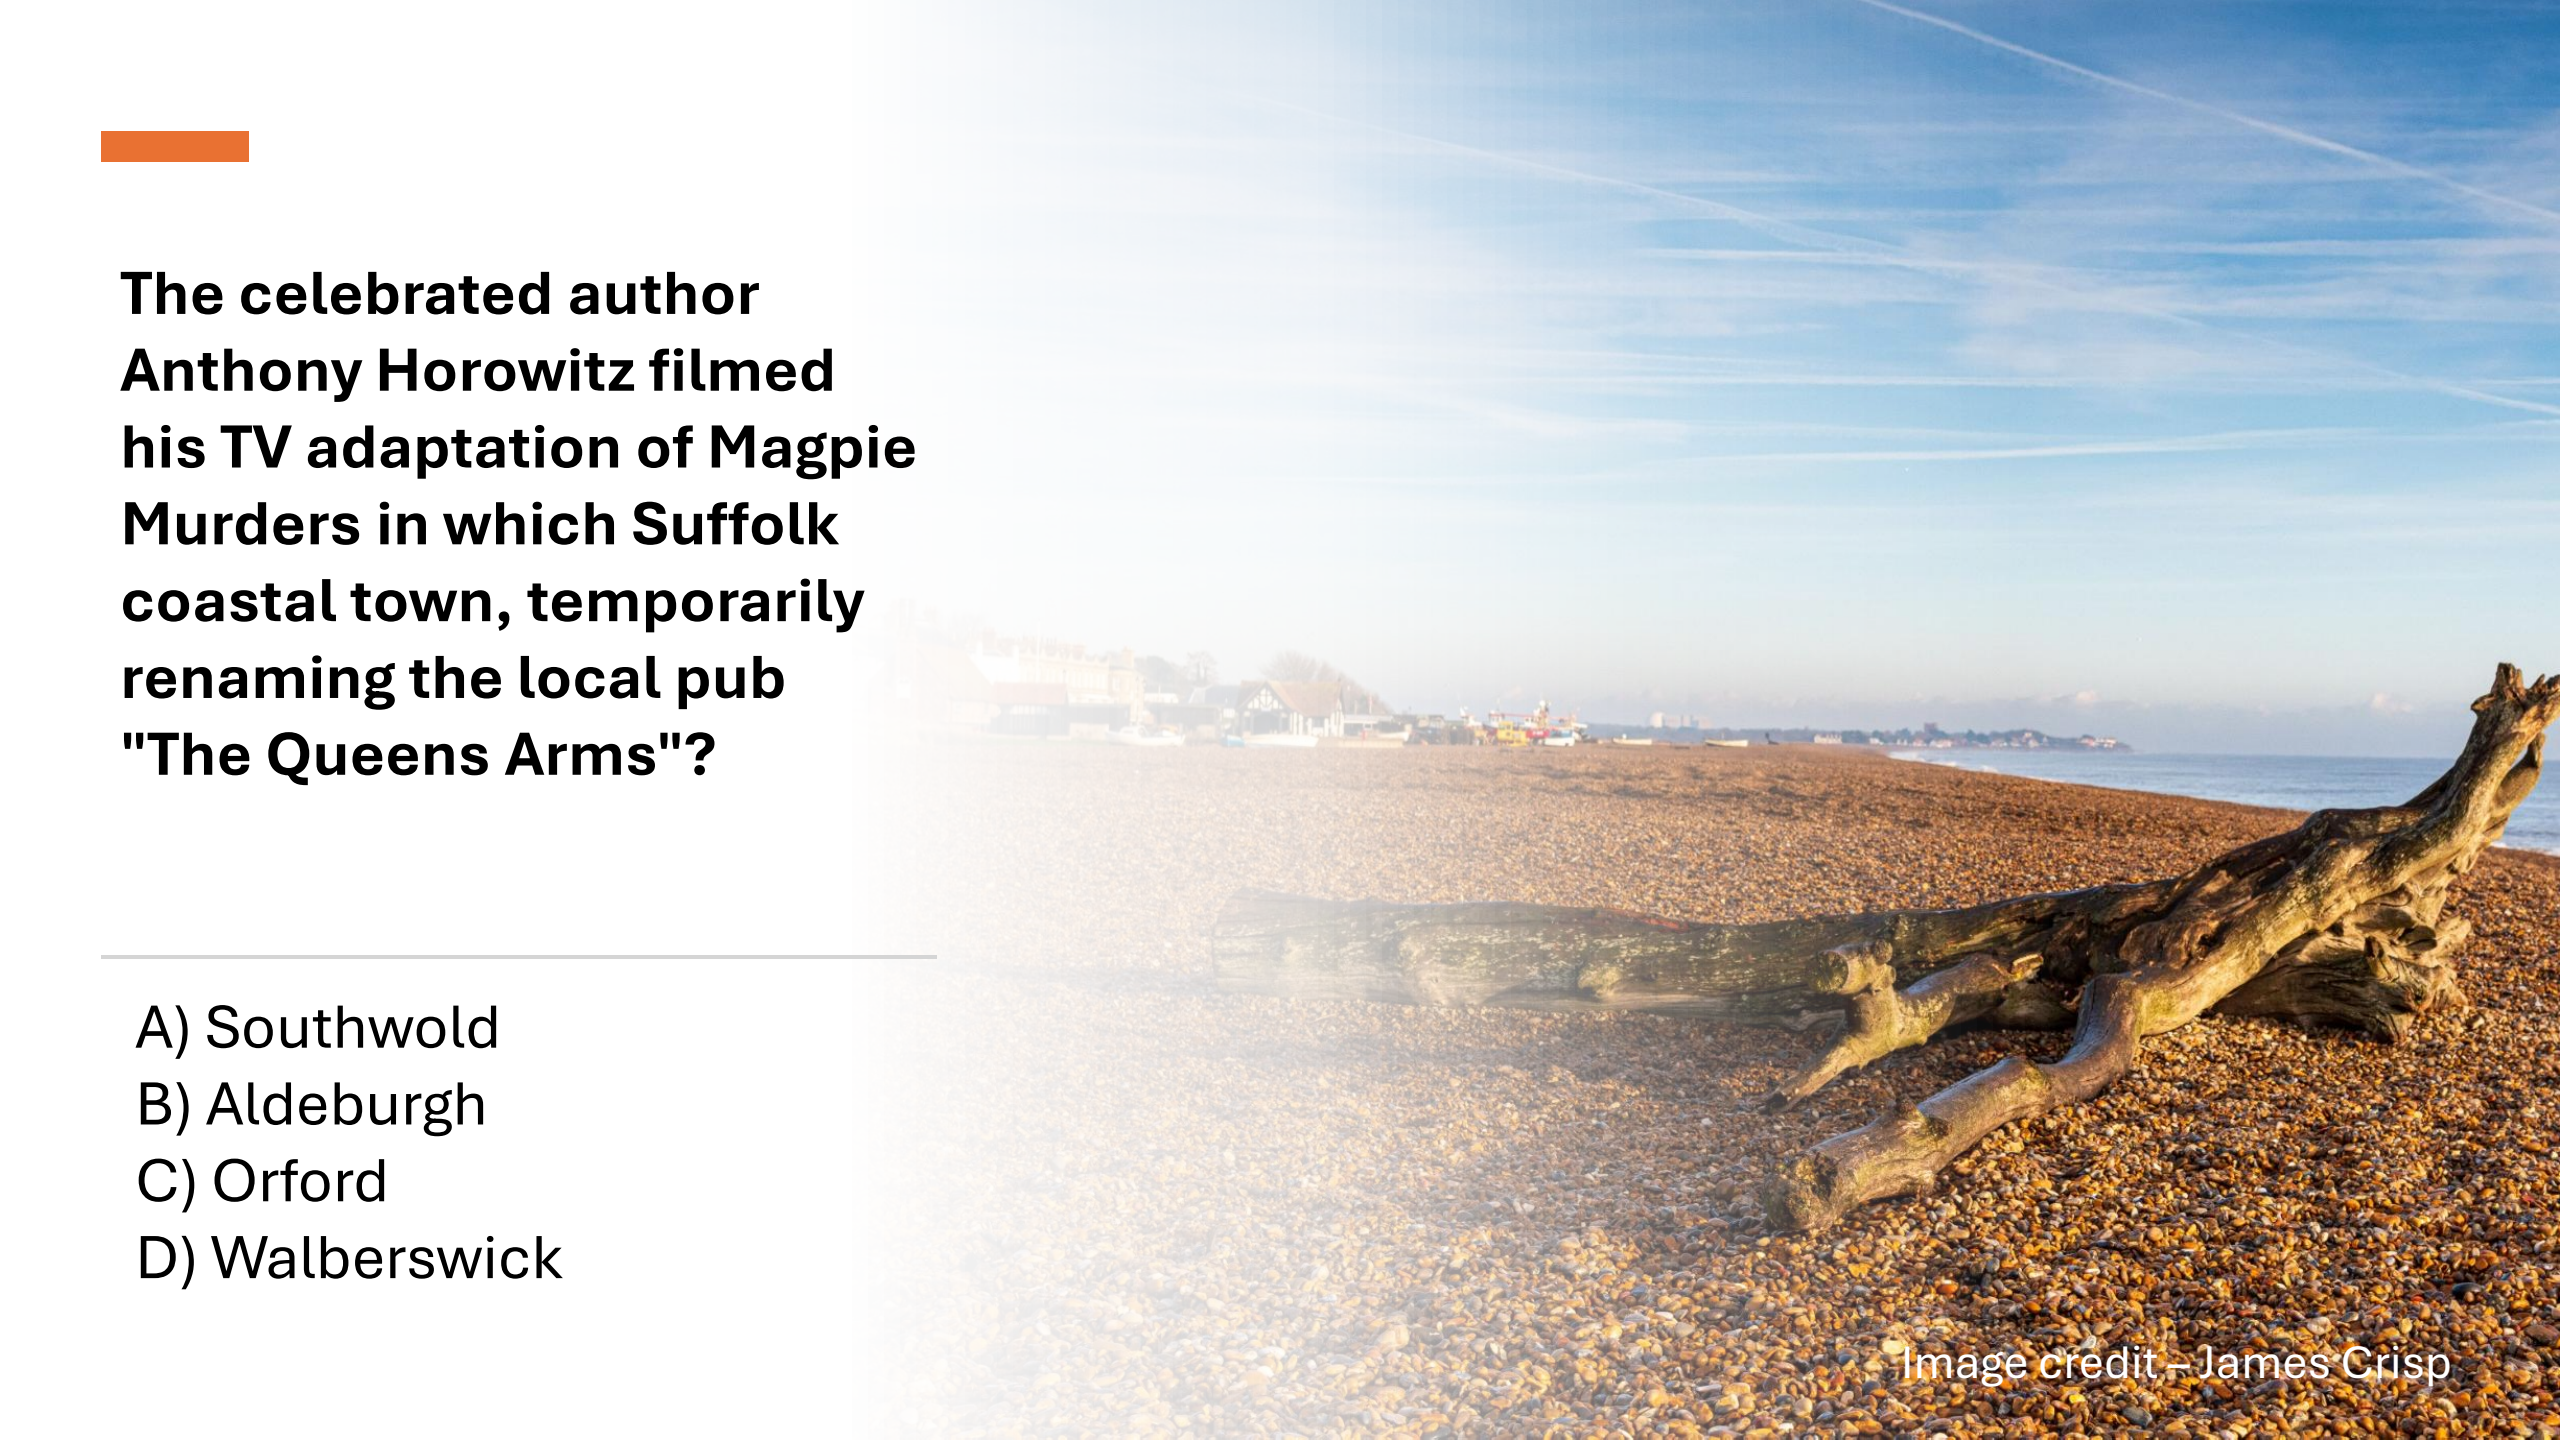

-
- A) Black fur
 - B) A shadow
 - C) Scorch marks
 - D) A silver collar

Literary Landscapes

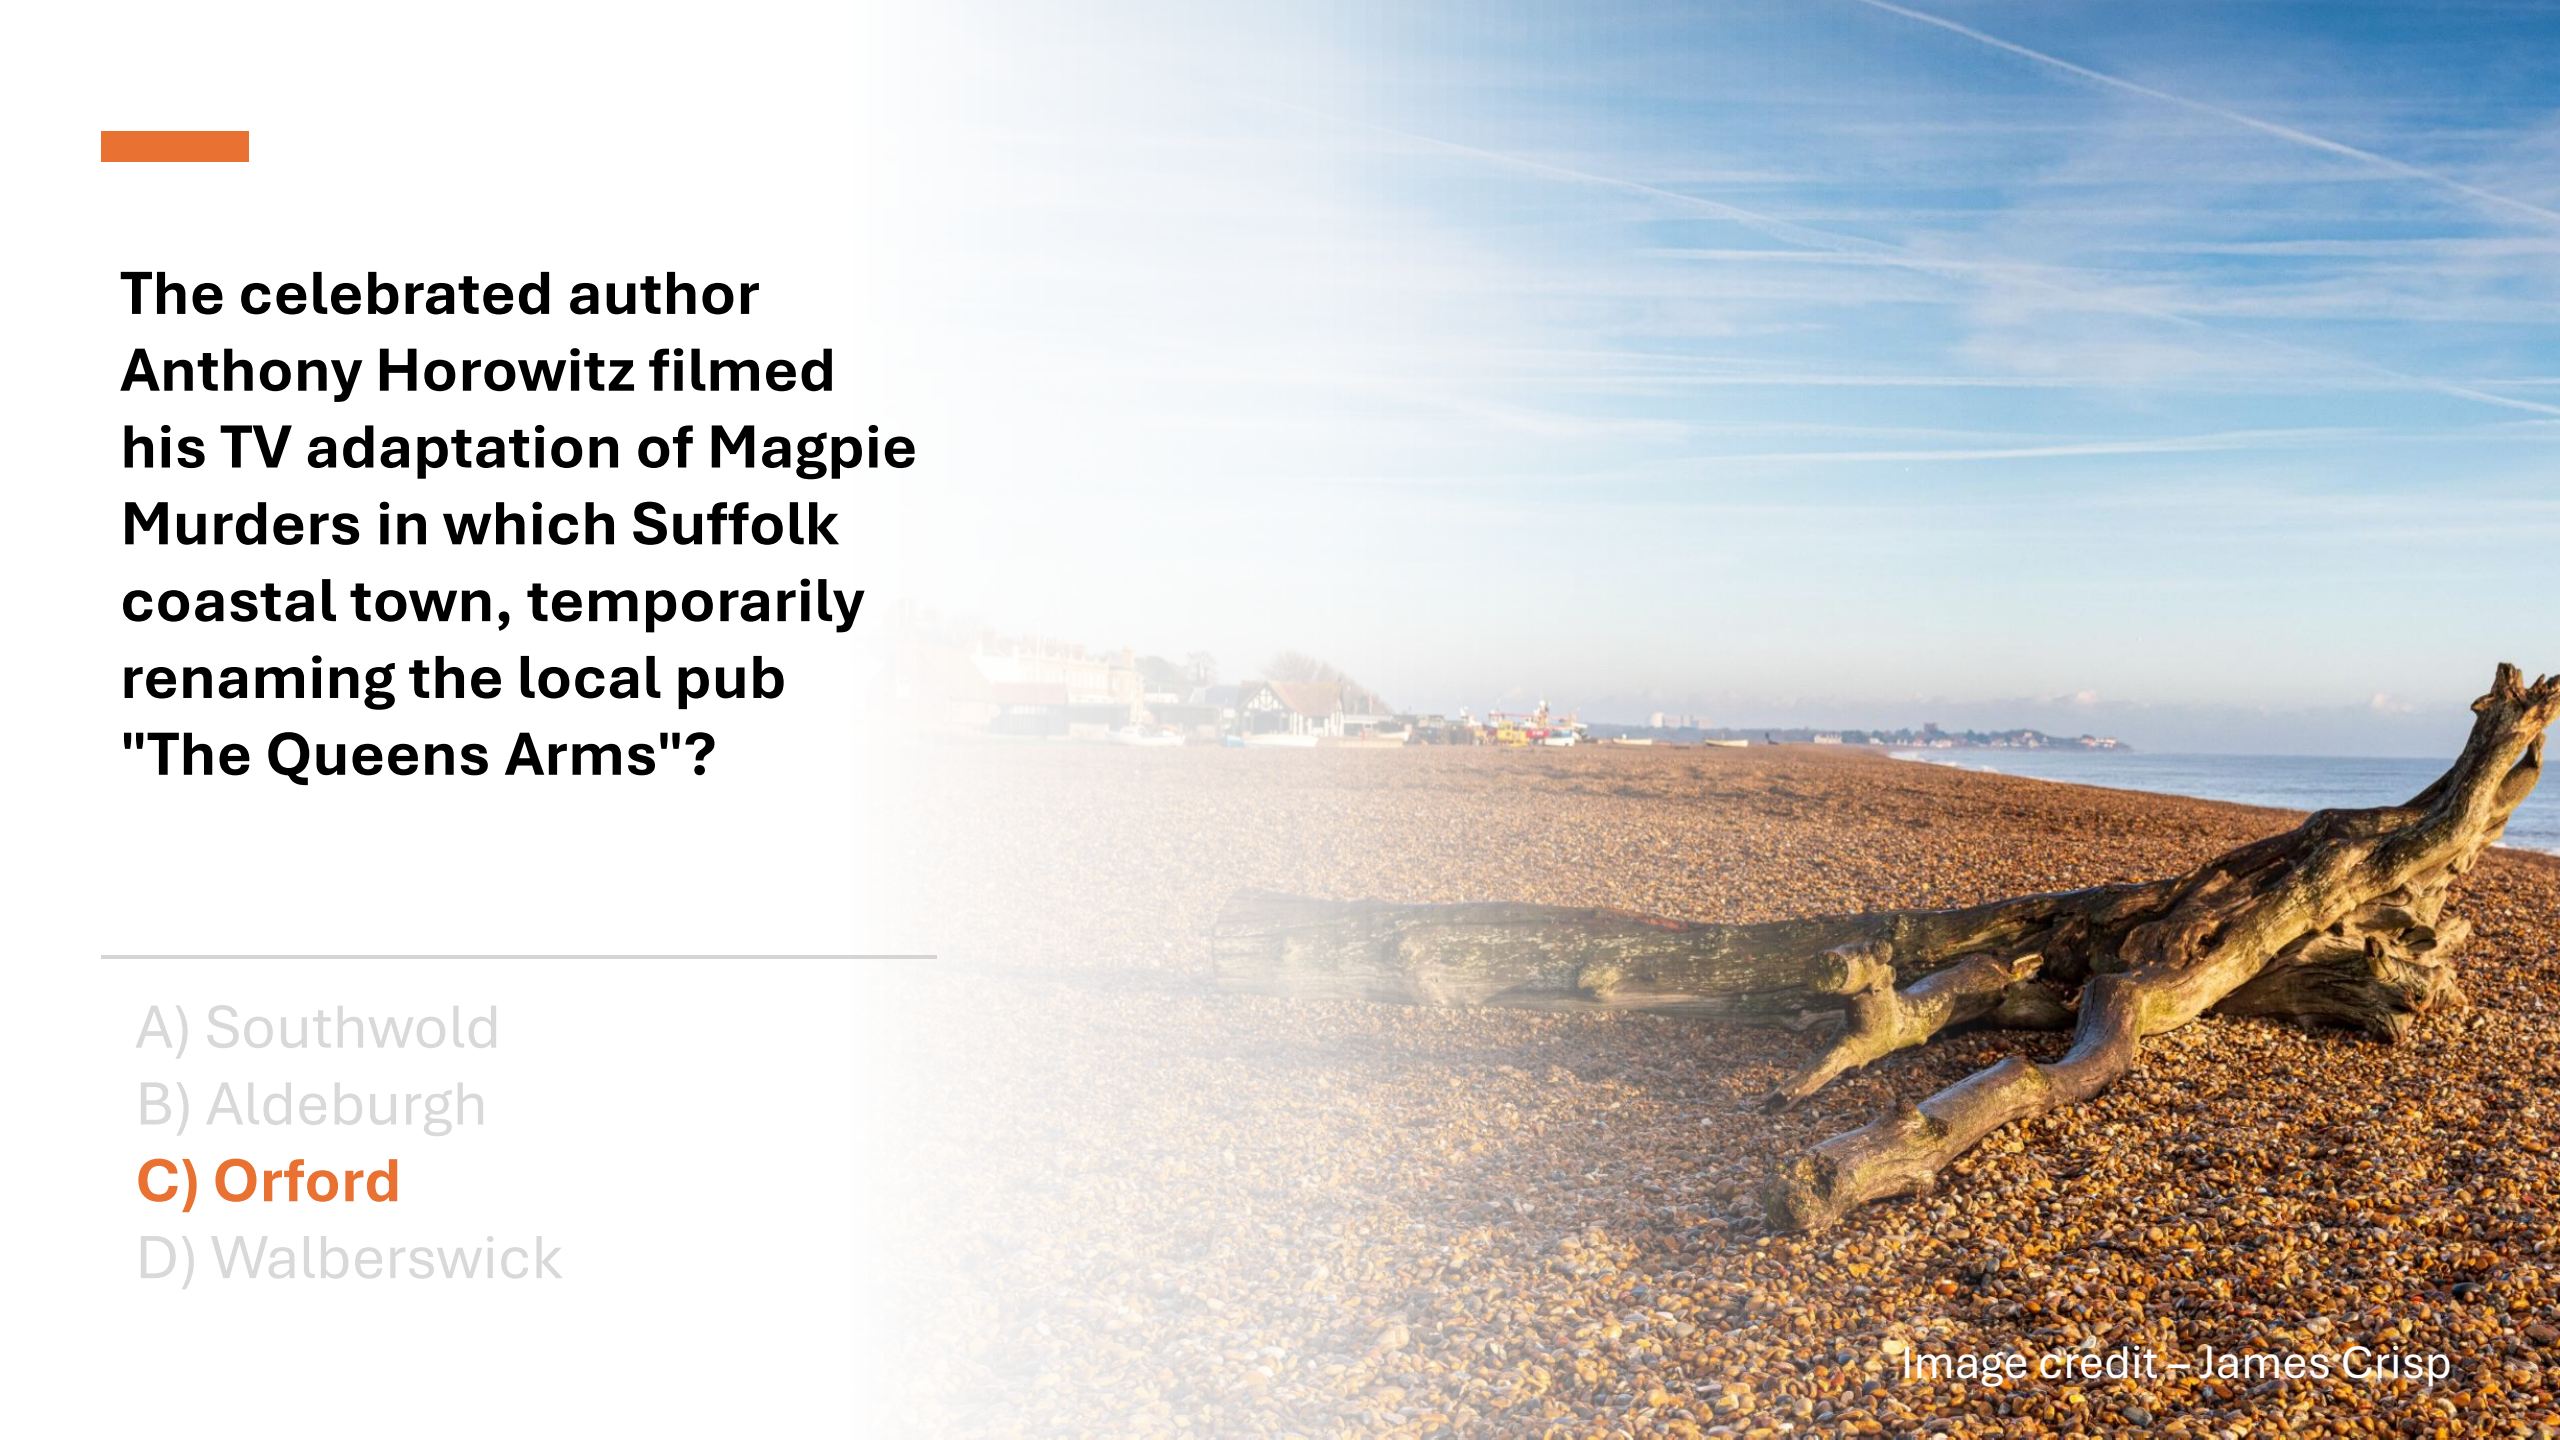

Image credit – James Crisp

The celebrated author Anthony Horowitz filmed his TV adaptation of Magpie Murders in which Suffolk coastal town, temporarily renaming the local pub "The Queens Arms"?

-
- A) Southwold
 - B) Aldeburgh
 - C) Orford
 - D) Walberswick

The celebrated author Anthony Horowitz filmed his TV adaptation of Magpie Murders in which Suffolk coastal town, temporarily renaming the local pub
"The Queens Arms"?

-
- A) Southwold
 - B) Aldeburgh
 - C) Orford
 - D) Walberswick

Southwold Pier Clock

The "Waterclock" on Southwold Pier is a favourite for tourists. Created by Tim Hunkin, what is the specific, cheeky action the two metal figures perform every half-hour?

- A) They tip a bucket of water on each other
- B) They "pee" into the water basin
- C) They "drink" a pint of Adnams
- D) They fall into the sea

The "Waterclock" on Southwold Pier is a favourite for tourists. Created by Tim Hunkin, what is the specific, cheeky action the two metal figures perform every half-hour?

- A) They tip a bucket of water on each other
- B) They "pee" into the water basin
- C) They "drink" a pint of Adnams
- D) They fall into the sea

The Scallop

Image credit – Foyers Photography

Maggi Hambling's "The Scallop" on Aldeburgh beach is a tribute to which local composer?

- A) Benjamin Britten
- B) Imogen Holst
- C) Peter Pears
- D) George Crabbe

Maggi Hambling's "The Scallop" on Aldeburgh beach is a tribute to which local composer?

A) Benjamin Britten

B) Imogen Holst

C) Peter Pears

D) George Crabbe

Minsmere

Image credit – Mischa Haller

RSVP Minsmere is world-famous, but it is particularly celebrated for the "recolonisation" of which bird species in the 1940s, which now features on the RSPB logo?

-
- A) The Bittern
 - B) The Marsh Harrier
 - C) The Avocet
 - D) The Bearded Tit

Image credit – Mischa Haller

RSVP Minsmere is world-famous, but it is particularly celebrated for the "recolonisation" of which bird species in the 1940s, which now features on the RSPB logo?

-
- A) The Bittern
 - B) The Marsh Harrier
 - C) The Avocet
 - D) The Bearded Tit

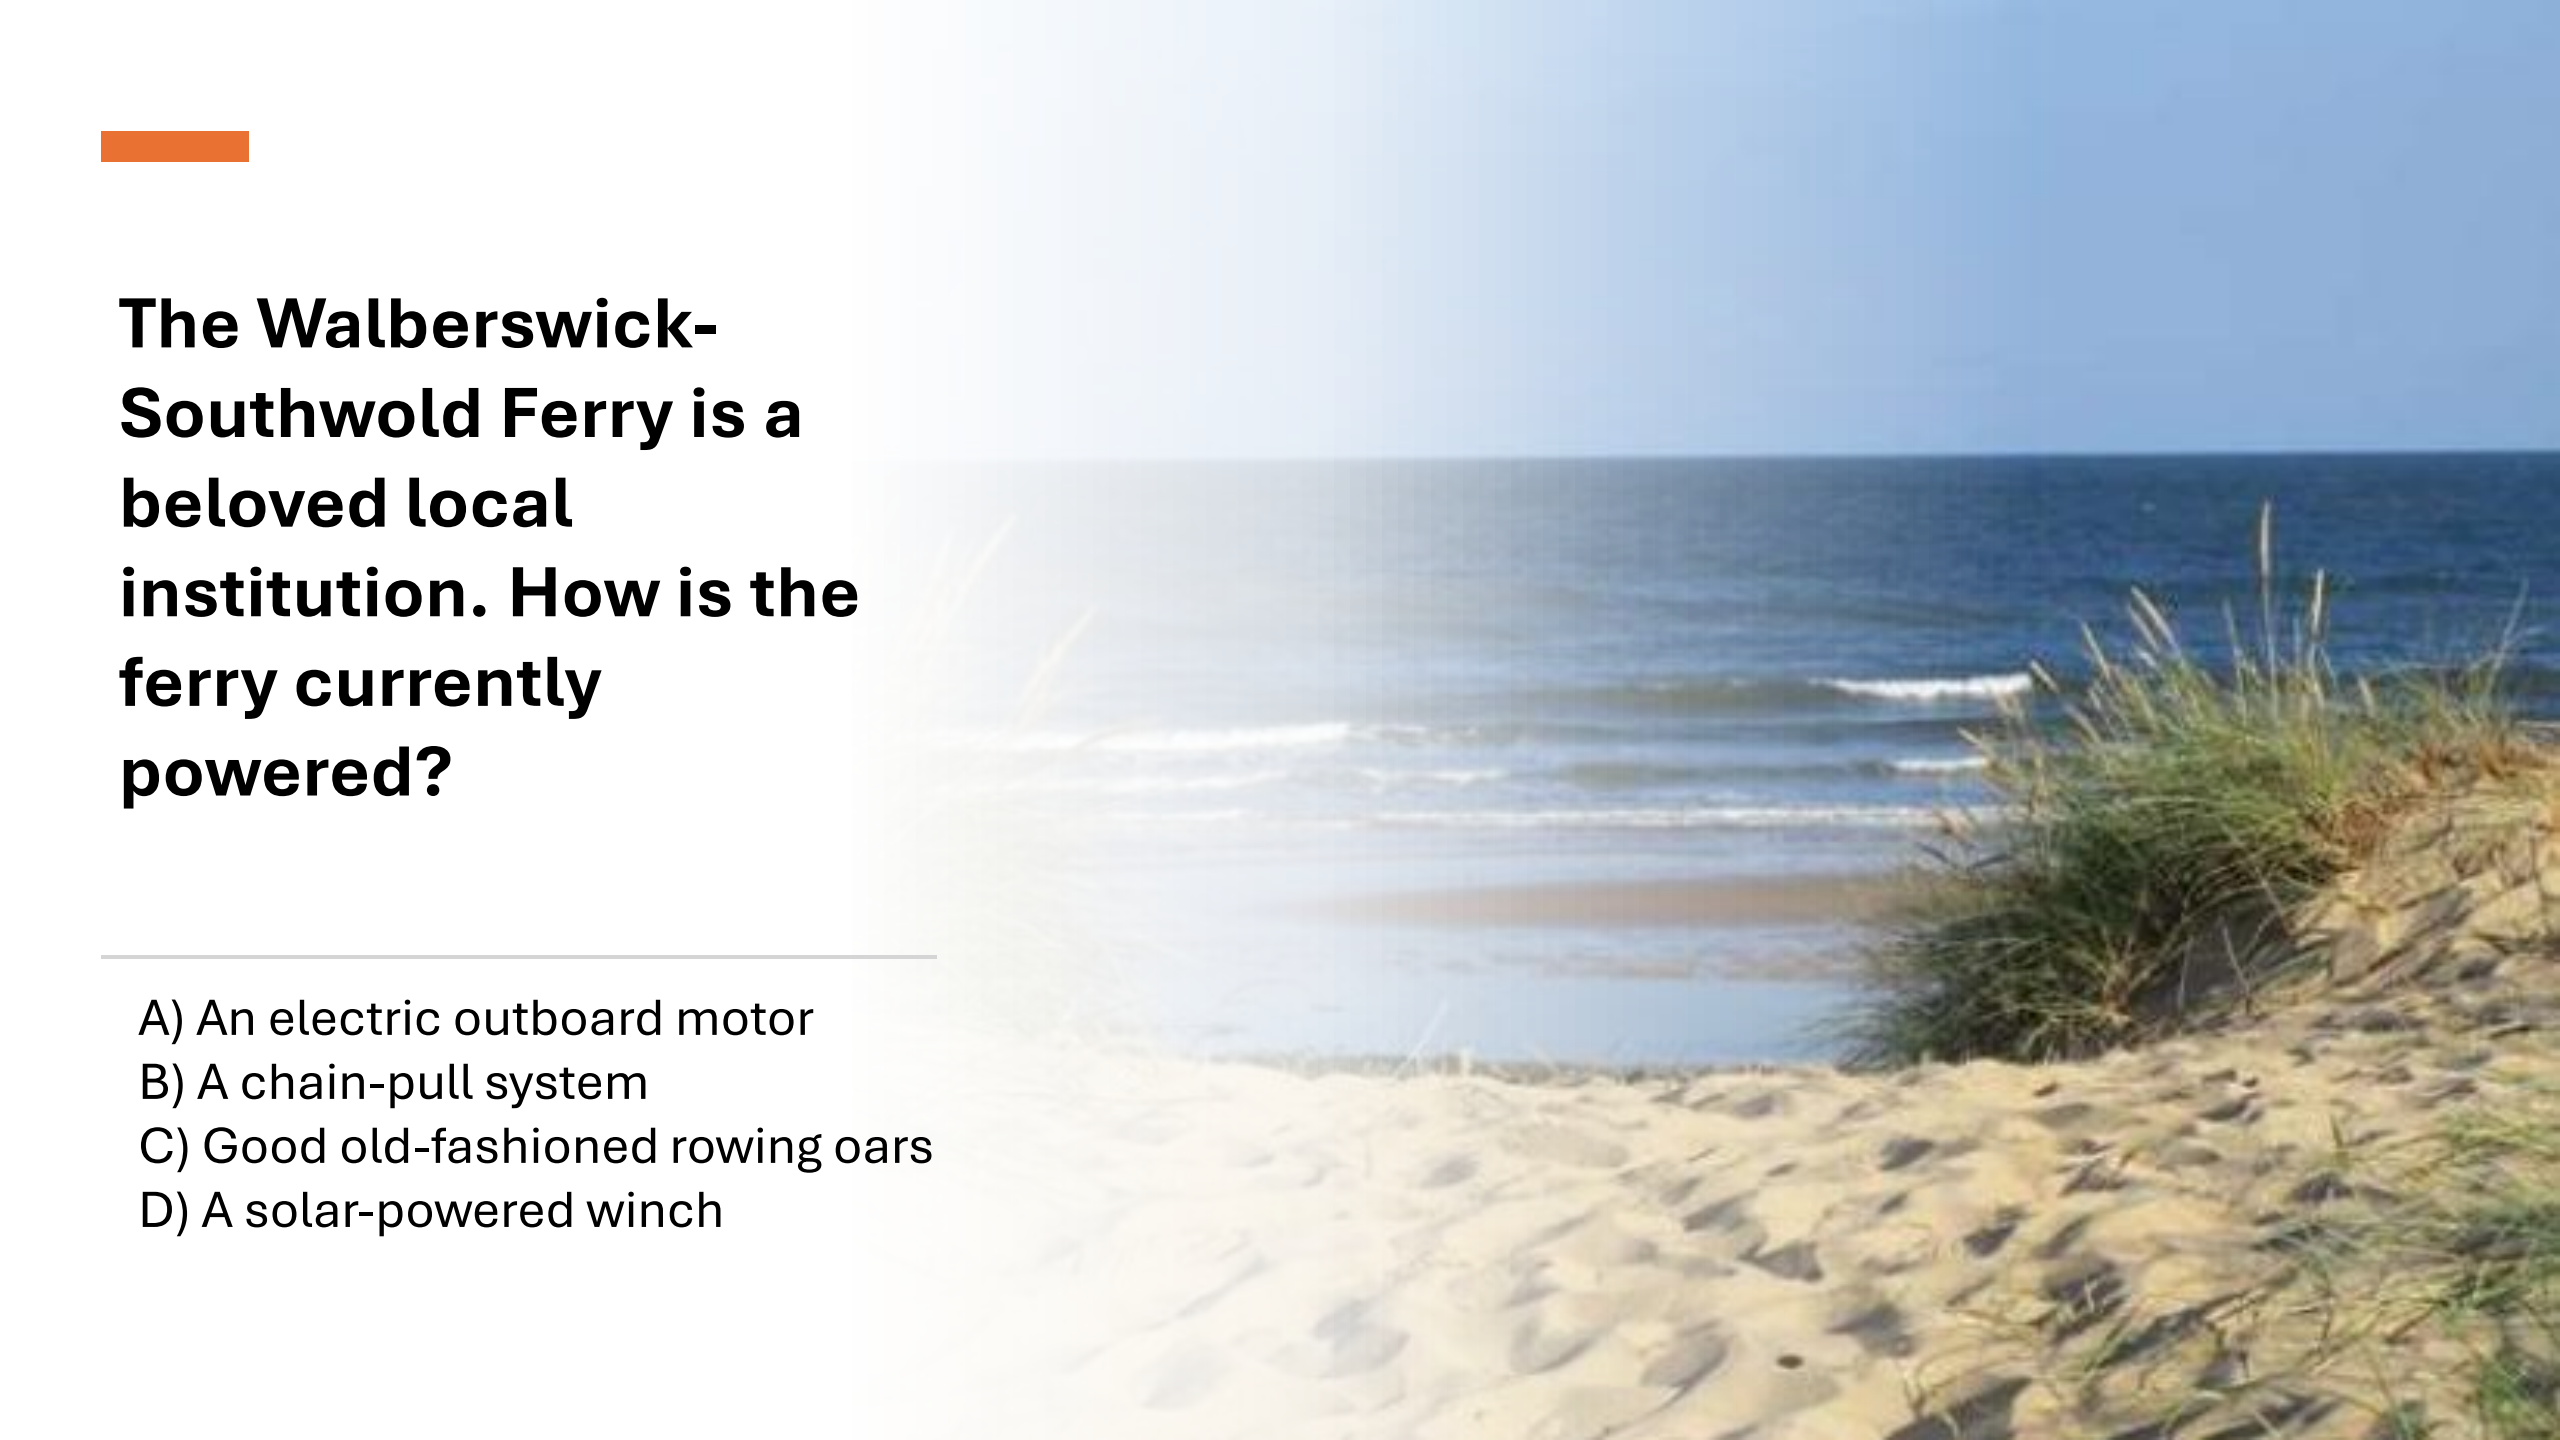

Image credit – Mischa Haller

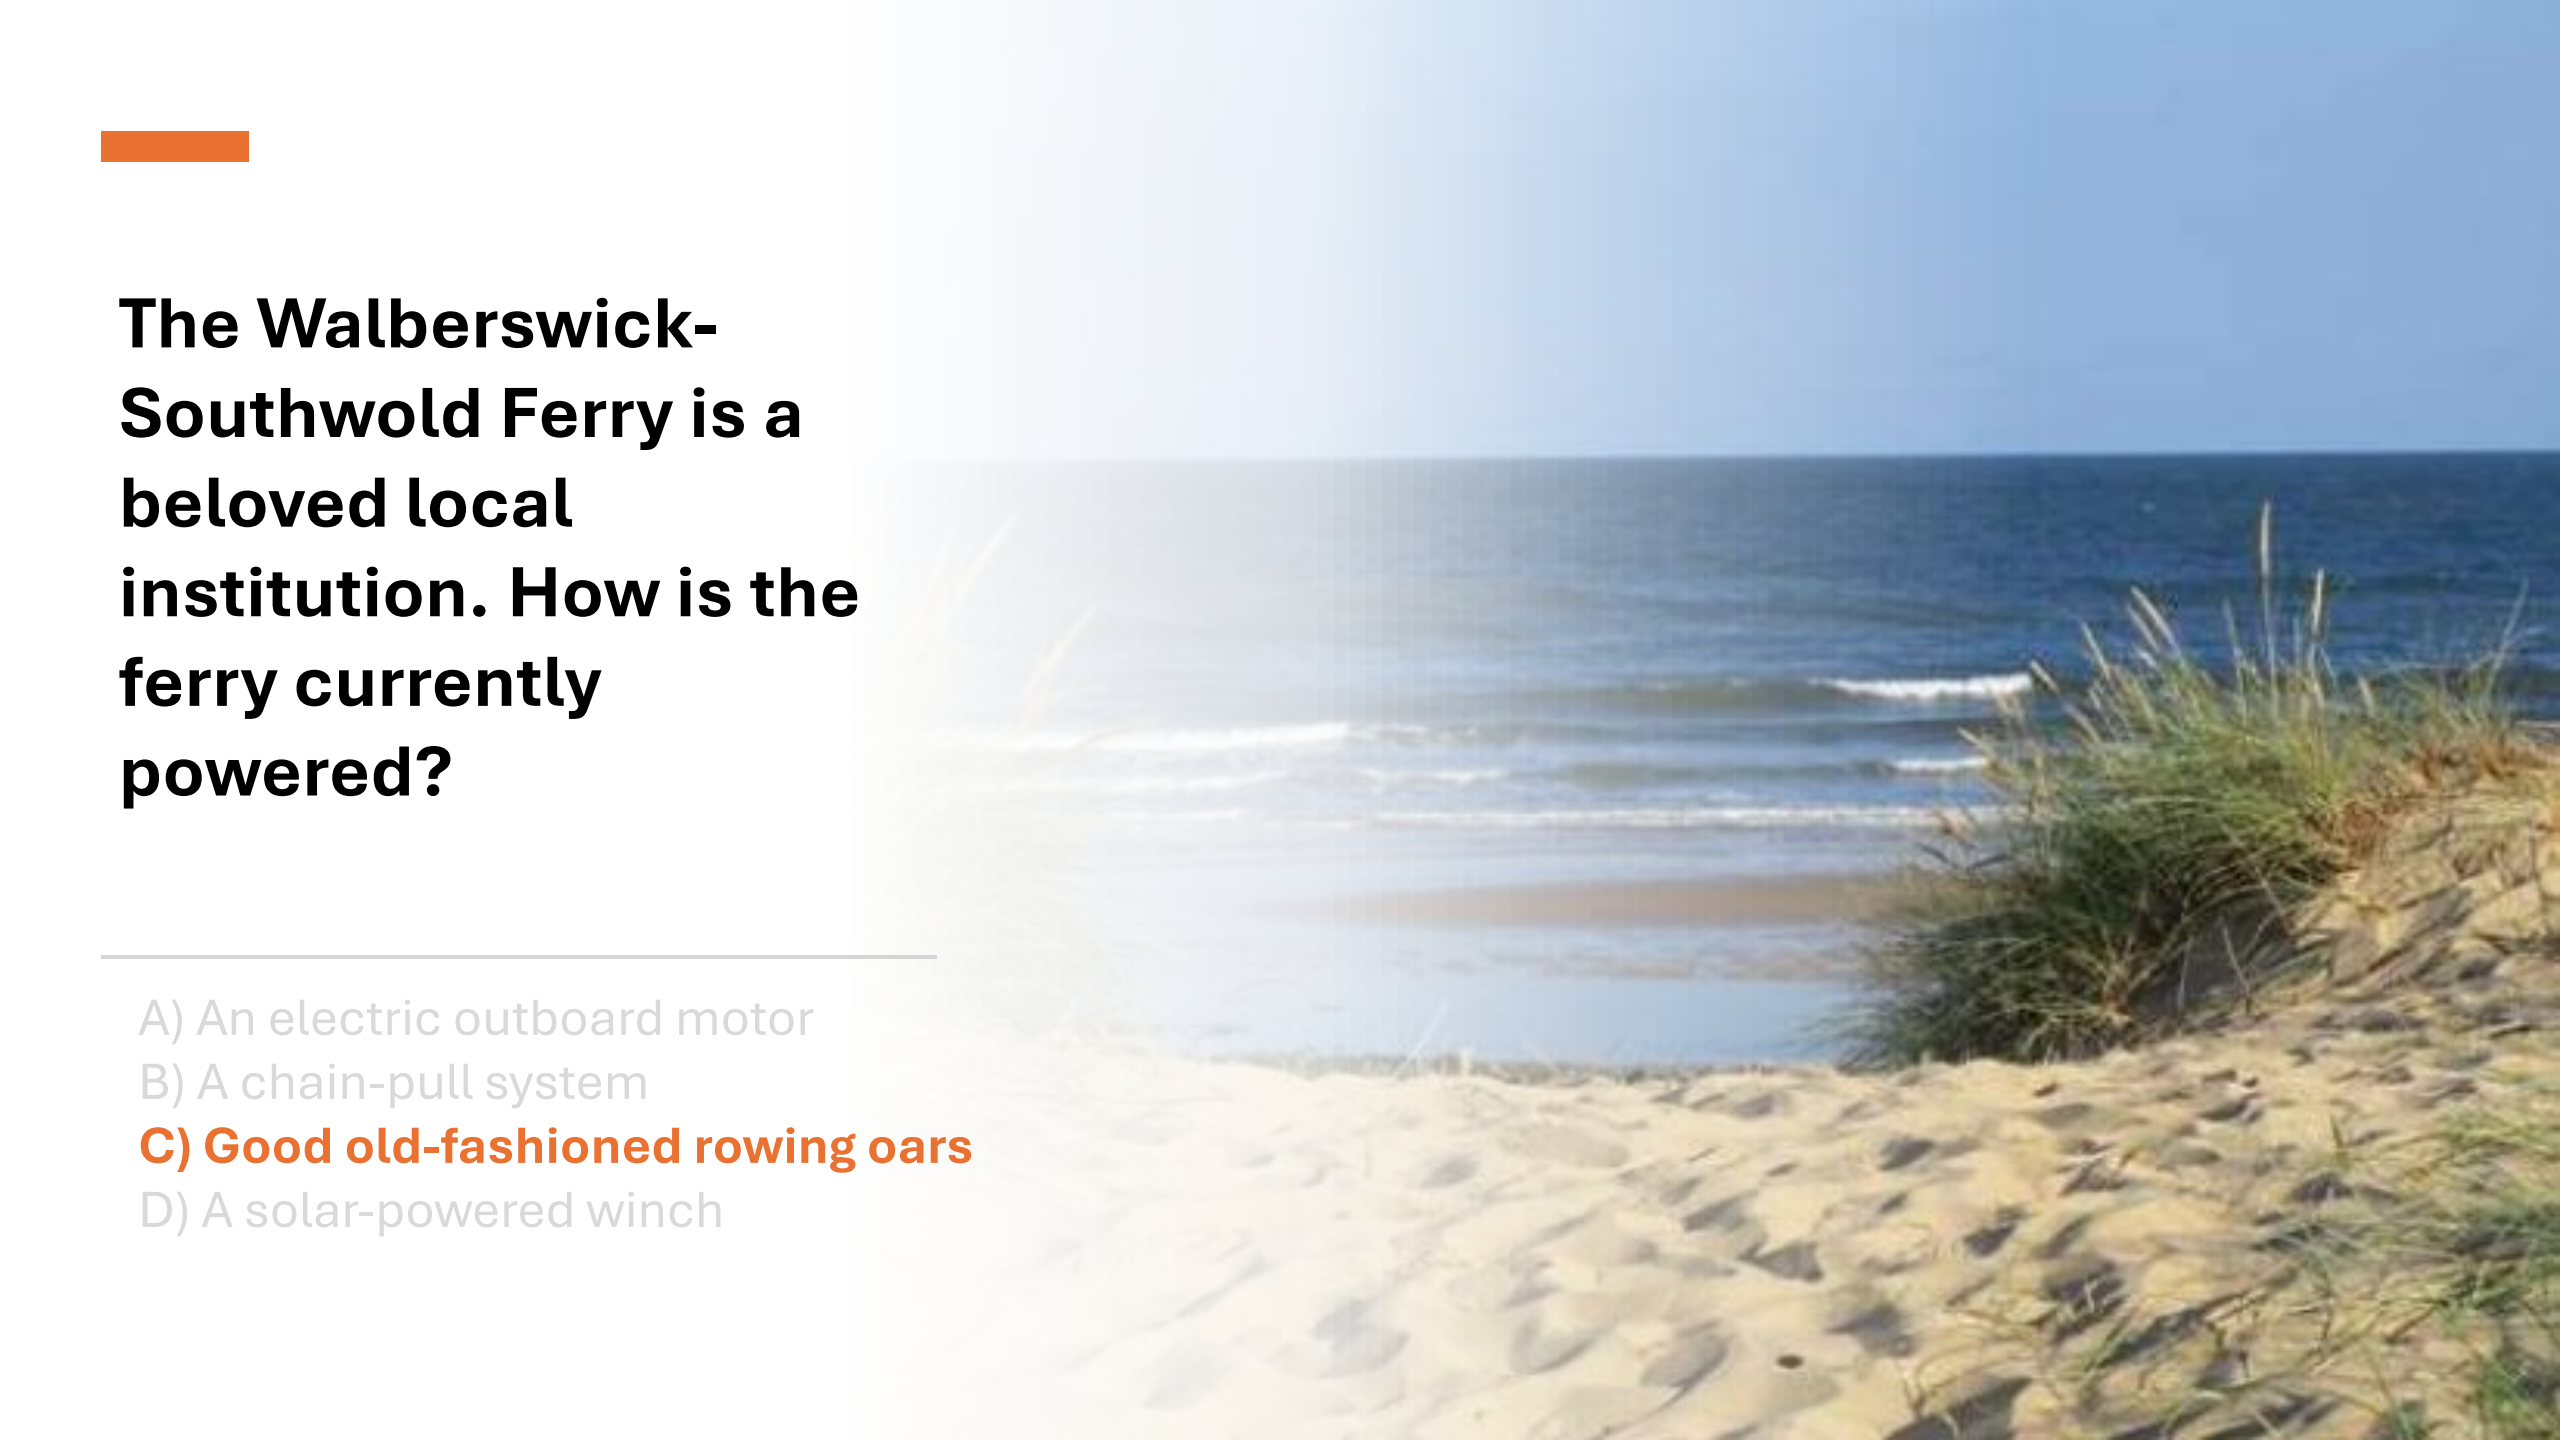

Walberswick

The Walberswick-Southwold Ferry is a beloved local institution. How is the ferry currently powered?

-
- A) An electric outboard motor
 - B) A chain-pull system
 - C) Good old-fashioned rowing oars
 - D) A solar-powered winch

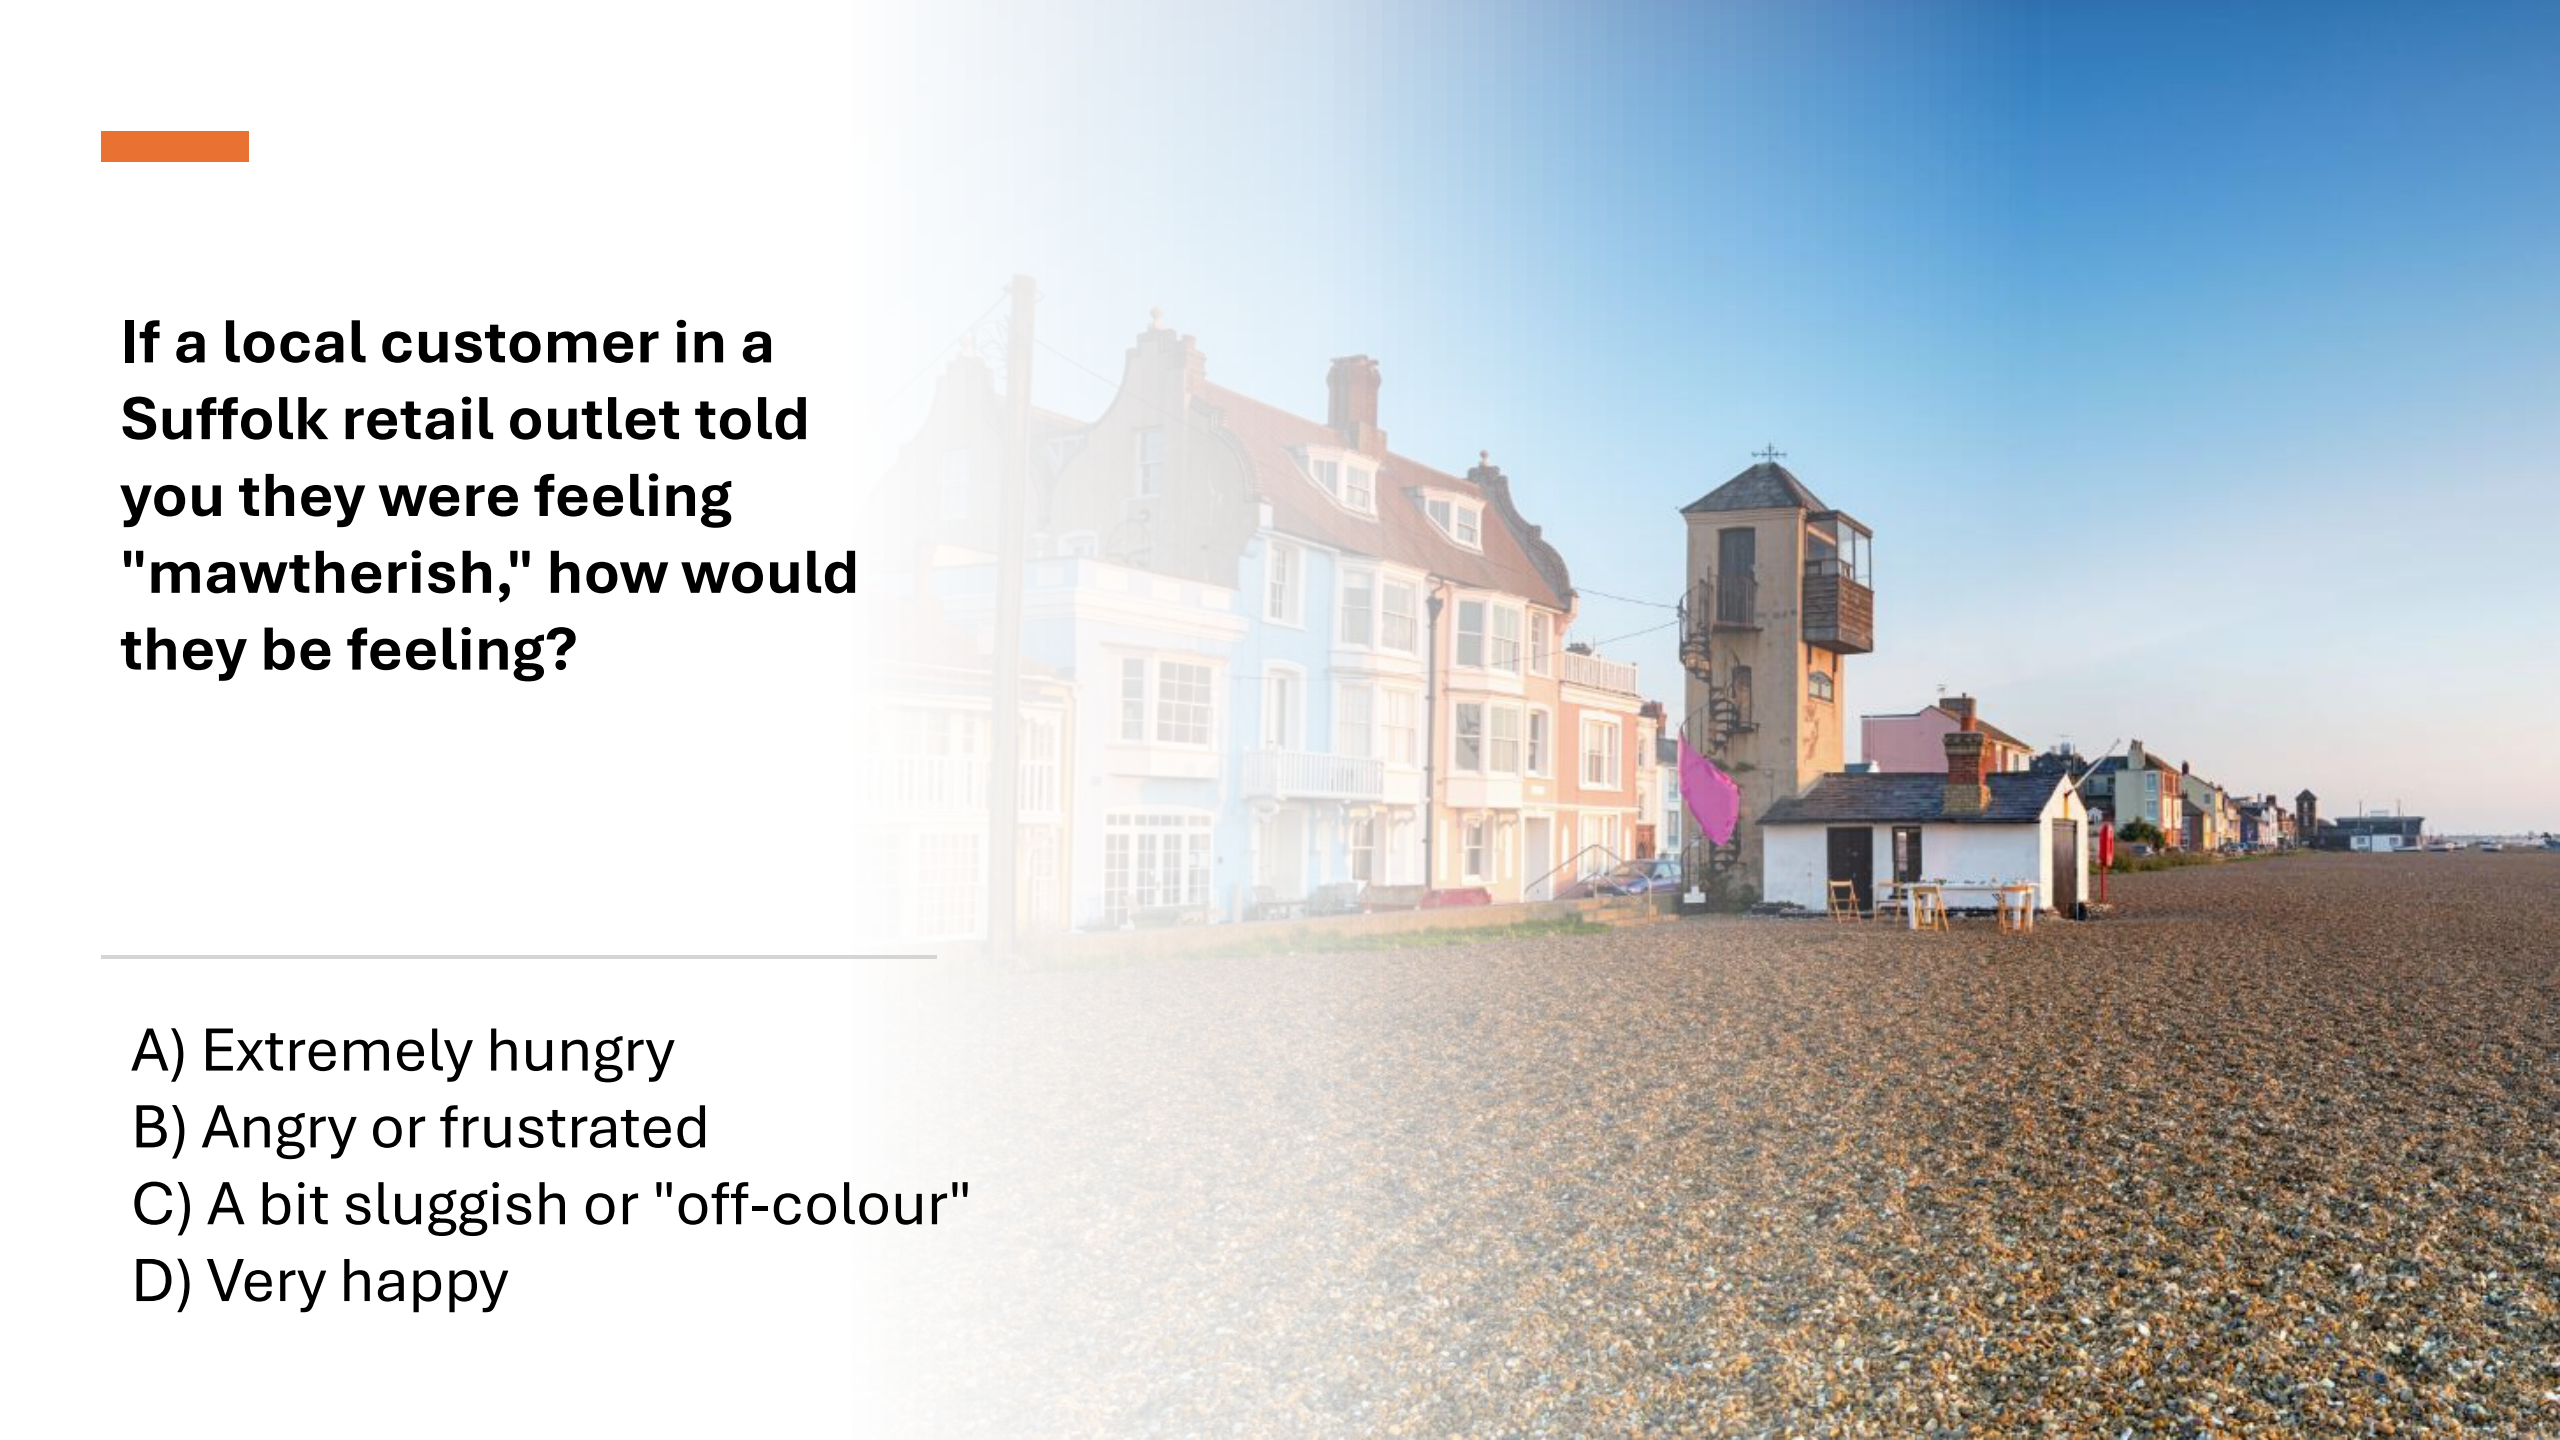

The Walberswick-Southwold Ferry is a beloved local institution. How is the ferry currently powered?

-
- A) An electric outboard motor
 - B) A chain-pull system
 - C) Good old-fashioned rowing oars
 - D) A solar-powered winch

The Sound of Suffolk

A photograph of a coastal town with a row of colorful houses (blue, white, orange) and a prominent lighthouse tower. The foreground is a wide, pebbly beach. The sky is clear and blue.

If a local customer in a Suffolk retail outlet told you they were feeling "mawtherish," how would they be feeling?

-
- A) Extremely hungry
 - B) Angry or frustrated
 - C) A bit sluggish or "off-colour"
 - D) Very happy

A photograph of a coastal town with a row of colorful houses (blue, white, orange) and a prominent lighthouse tower. The foreground is a wide, pebbly beach. The sky is clear and blue.

If a local customer in a Suffolk retail outlet told you they were feeling "mawtherish," how would they be feeling?

-
- A) Extremely hungry
 - B) Angry or frustrated
 - C) A bit sluggish or "off-colour"
 - D) Very happy

Sutton Hoo Ship

The Great Ship Burial discovered in 1939 changed our understanding of the "Dark Ages" forever. Approximately how long was the Anglo-Saxon ghost ship found in Mound 1?

- A) 15 metres
- B) 21 metres
- C) 27 metres
- D) 35 metres

The Great Ship Burial discovered in 1939 changed our understanding of the "Dark Ages" forever. Approximately how long was the Anglo-Saxon ghost ship found in Mound 1?

- A) 15 metres
- B) 21 metres
- C) 27 metres
- D) 35 metres

Suffolk Pink

A row of traditional pink-washed cottages with thatched roofs and white doors, set against a backdrop of a stone church tower and green trees under a blue sky. The cottages are arranged in a line, and the church tower is a prominent feature in the background.

The Suffolk Coast is famous for its picturesque pink-washed cottages. Historically, what "organic" ingredient was added to the lime wash to achieve this specific shade?

-
- A) Crushed ladybirds
 - B) Red clay from the cliffs
 - C) Pig's blood or Sloe berries
 - D) Beetroot juice

The Suffolk Coast is famous for its picturesque pink-washed cottages. Historically, what "organic" ingredient was added to the lime wash to achieve this specific shade?

- A) Crushed ladybirds
- B) Red clay from the cliffs
- C) Pig's blood or Sloe berries
- D) Beetroot juice

The British Roswell

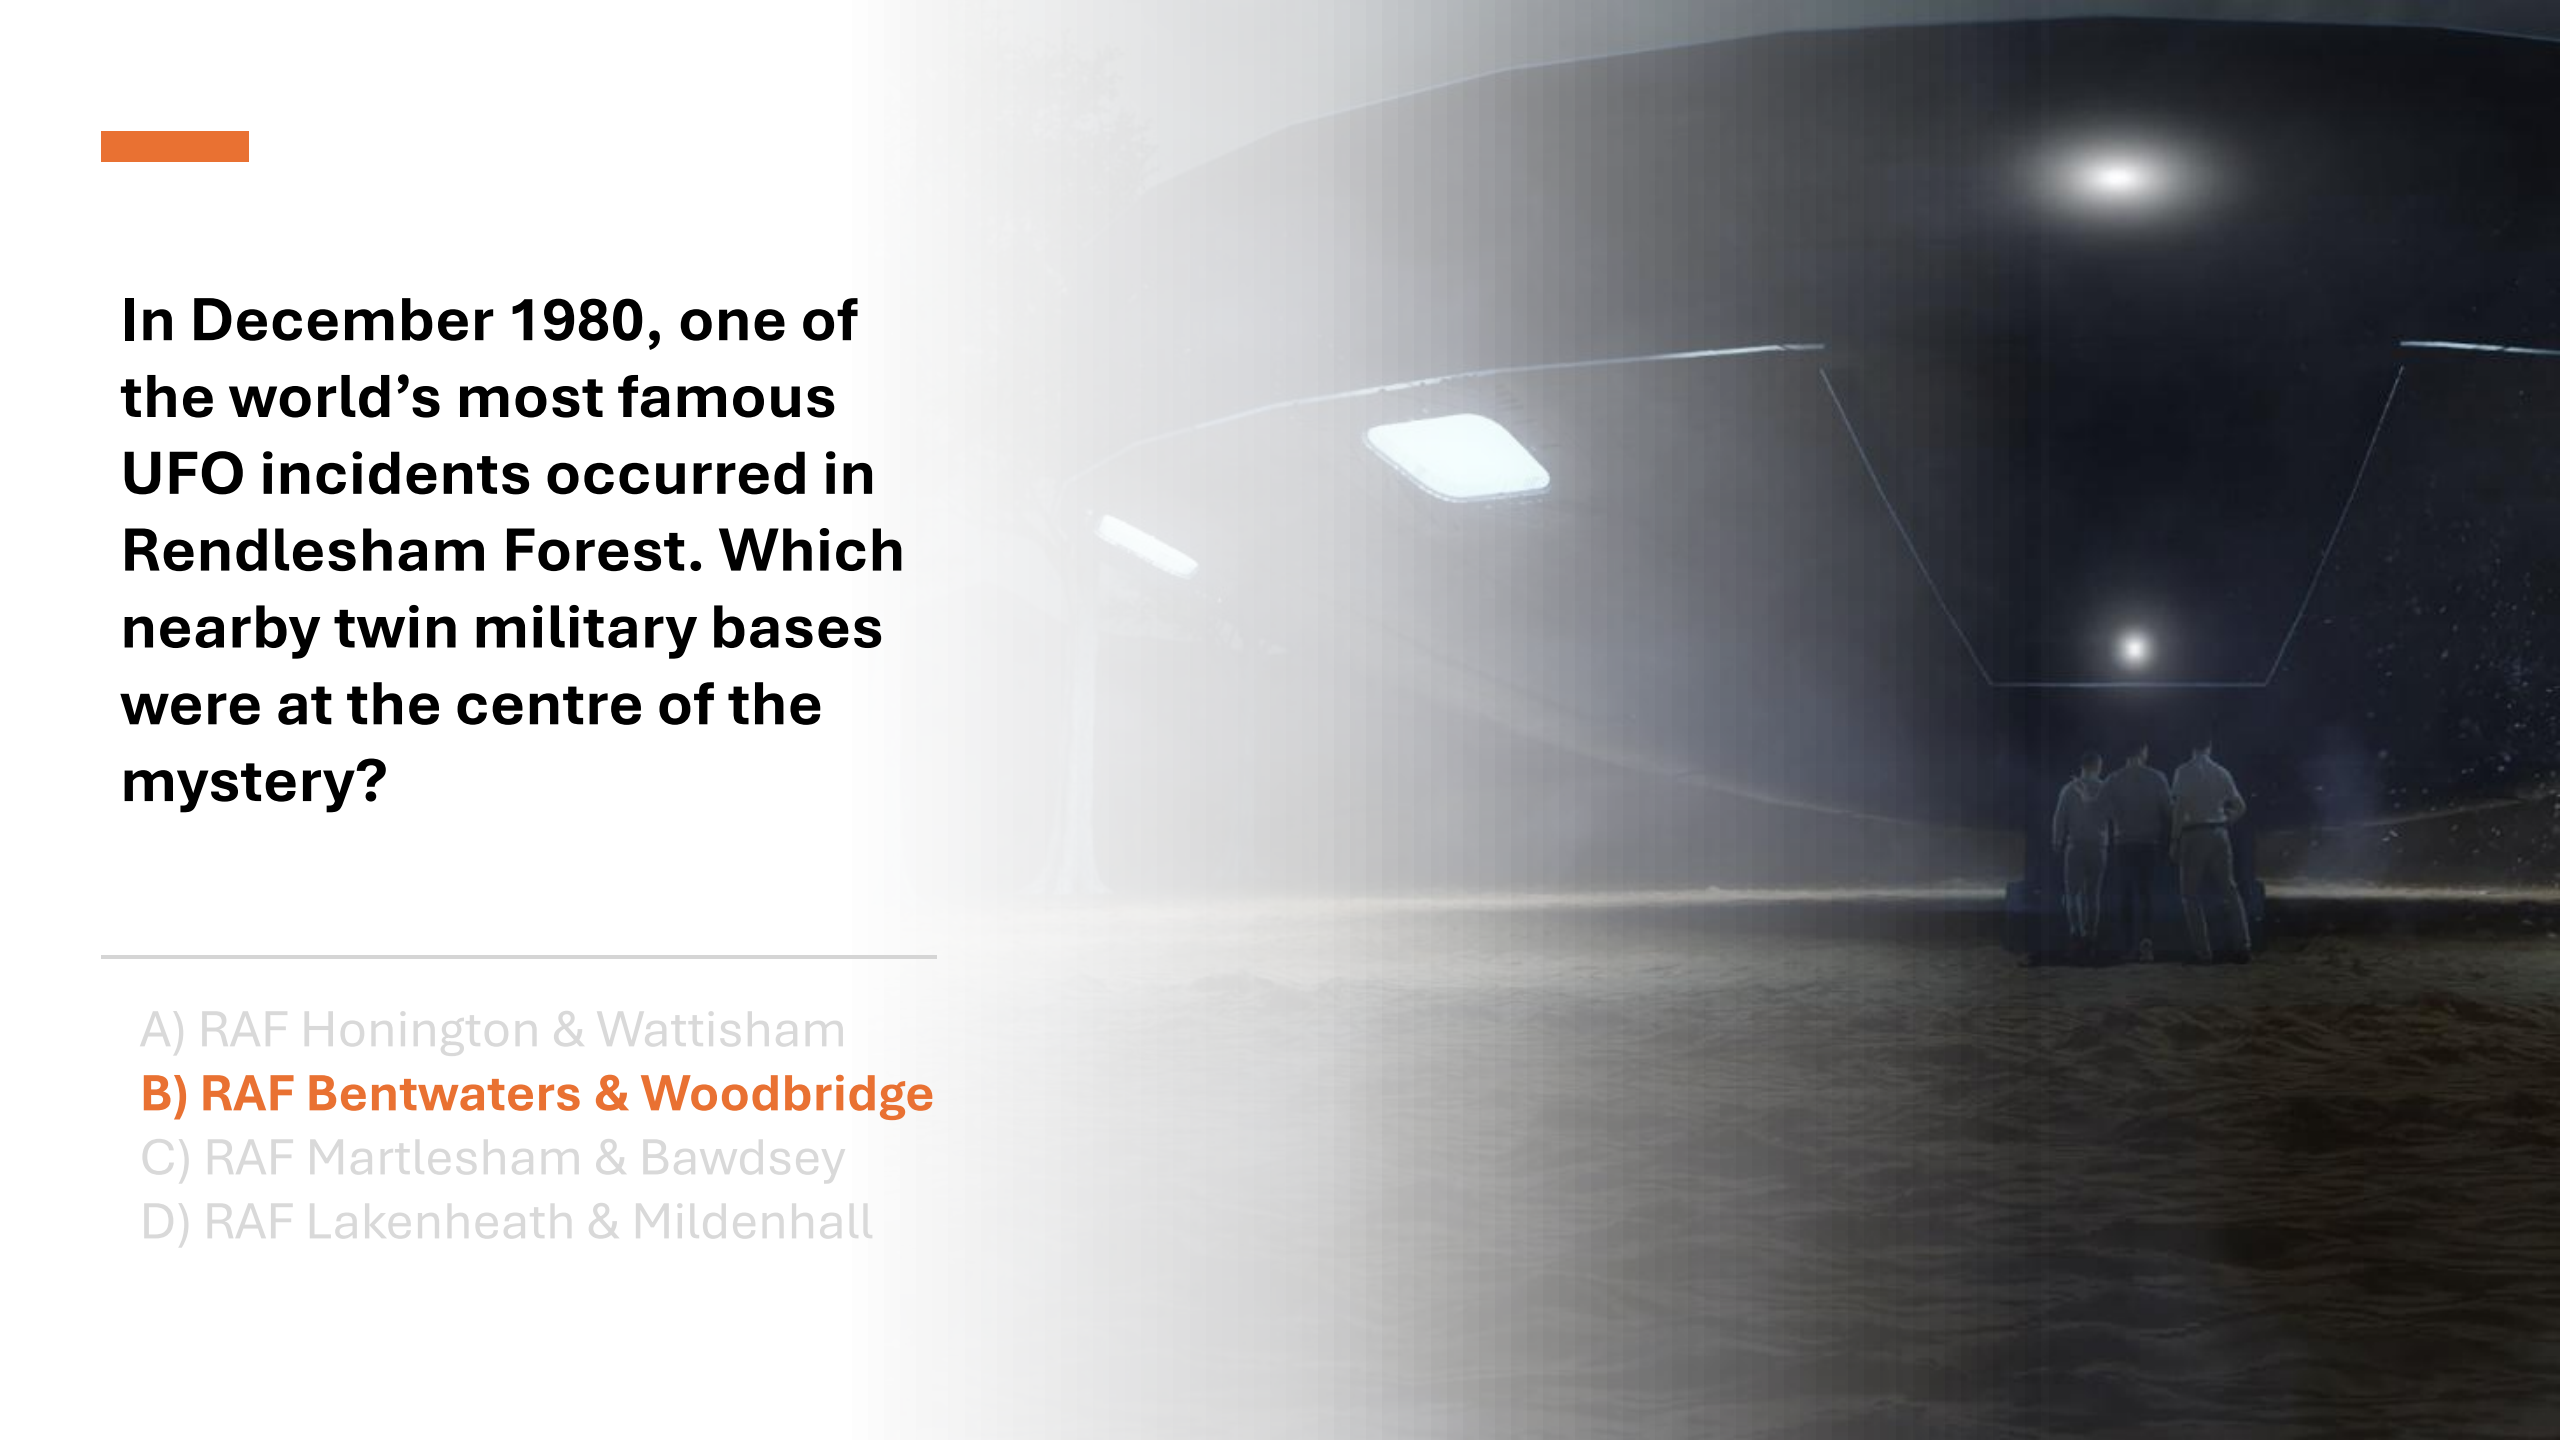

In December 1980, one of the world's most famous UFO incidents occurred in Rendlesham Forest. Which nearby twin military bases were at the centre of the mystery?

-
- A) RAF Honington & Wattisham
 - B) RAF Bentwaters & Woodbridge
 - C) RAF Martlesham & Bawdsey
 - D) RAF Lakenheath & Mildenhall

In December 1980, one of the world's most famous UFO incidents occurred in Rendlesham Forest. Which nearby twin military bases were at the centre of the mystery?

-
- A) RAF Honington & Wattisham
 - B) RAF Bentwaters & Woodbridge
 - C) RAF Martlesham & Bawdsey
 - D) RAF Lakenheath & Mildenhall

Woodbridge Tide Mill

The Woodbridge Tide Mill is one of only a handful in the world still producing flour. For how many years has there been a mill recorded on that exact site?

-
- A) 300 years
 - B) 500 years
 - C) 700 years
 - D) Over 850 years

The Woodbridge Tide Mill is one of only a handful in the world still producing flour. For how many years has there been a mill recorded on that exact site?

-
- A) 300 years
 - B) 500 years
 - C) 700 years
 - D) Over 850 years